

We currently support the no-call efforts of our State and do not support removing this from the process. Since this effort was implemented we do not receive telemarketing, sales pitches, etc., and it has been a real relief. The FCC SHOULD NOT be getting involved in this matter within the State of Indiana, and they should be putting their efforts towards fraud, etc., in lieu of trying to remove this process from our system.